THE MET

MEET THE TEAM

THE MET

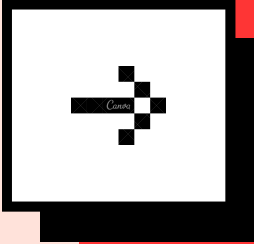

WHAT'S THE MET?

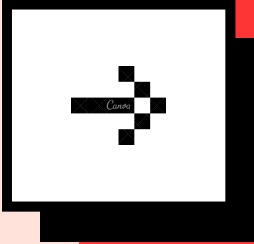

- An art museum that's over 150 years old
- The Met presents over 5,000 years of art from around the world for everyone to experience and enjoy
- Teen Programs hosts programs, events, and internships for young people to build skills (artmaking, career development, identity development), meet other young people, and have fun
- Follow @metteens on Instagram to see more about our programs and the work interns are doing

WHAT IS THE ART & CULTURE SCHOLARS PROGRAM?

- A partnership program between the Fund, NYCHA and The Met.
- An educational experience that provides you with opportunities to:
 - Be active participants in your personal and professional development
 - Hear from arts, museum, and creative professionals about a range of careers
 - Engage in exciting and interactive opportunities
 - Develop professional skills, network, and gain work experience
 - Experience for creative exploration
 - Get to know what actually happens inside museums (museum literacy)

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

- Spend 40 hours in-person at one of the most globally renowned museums!
- Learn leadership development skills alongside peers and mentors
- Work with professionals from The Met and outside the Museum, learning from them and building your professional network
- Experience The Met's space and exhibitions
- Explore career pathways in the world of art, culture and museums, and build your resume
- Earn a $1,100 stipend
- Create a community with other interns

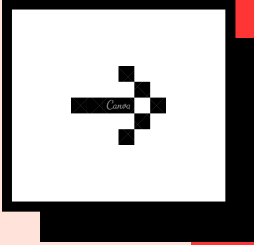

THE MET

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

- Meet 2-3 times per month to create an activity that you will lead during two Teen Programs at The Met
- The project will relate to using various art forms as a tool for social justice and activism - ARTivism
- You will guide that activism by exploring issues that matter to you
- With our guidance, you will take ownership over the development of the project
- At the end, we'll celebrate your work with a reception
